REGARDING: The Dolly Lancaster Art Award: A non-renewable Five Hundred dollar ($500.00) book award given to a graduating senior who will be majoring in visual arts.

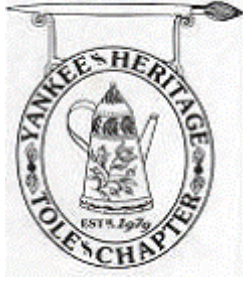

This award was established in 1992 to recognize outstanding artistic achievement by a graduating senior of a New England High School who will be continuing his/her education with plans to major in the visual arts. It was re-named in 2006 in memory of Dolly, a board member Emeritus and one of the founding members of our chapter. It is a non-renewable award maintained by the Yankee Heritage Tole Chapter of New England, a group of professional and non-professional decorative painting society members.

A certificate of award acknowledgement will be presented to the scholar recipient at the June Chapter meeting. Upon receipt of proof of successful completion of the first semester’s study, a non-renewable award of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) will be presented to the student and acknowledged at the following year’s January meeting.

The purpose of this award is to encourage the further study of the visual arts and is available yearly.
